

National Pollinator Week!

June 22—28, 2008

Celebrate at Stone Mountain Park
Free programs with yearly or daily Parking pass fee

Tuesday, June 24, 2008

Songbird Habitat: 10 am—11 am
Learn about plants and the pollinators that use them on a 1 mile hike on the meadow trail.
Bring binoculars.
Meets at the Songbird Habitat Parking Area

Thursday, June 26, 2008

Walking Trails: 10 am—1045 am
Explore this abandoned site that we have certified as a pollinator garden. Learn how you can help pollinators on this 1/4 mile stroll!
Meets at the Walking Trails Parking Lot, just inside the West Gate.

Friday, June 27, 2008

Pollinator Crafts: 1130 am—130 pm
Come at any time between the program hours to make your craft.
Confederate Hall Historical and Environmental Education Lobby

For individuals and family groups only.
Wear comfortable walking shoes and bring sun-screen and water.
Call 770.498.5658 for more information and directions.

National Pollinator Week!

June 22—28, 2008

Celebrate at Stone Mountain Park
Free programs with yearly or daily Parking pass fee

Tuesday, June 24, 2008

Songbird Habitat: 10 am—11 am
Learn about plants and the pollinators that use them on a 1 mile hike on the meadow trail.
Bring binoculars.
Meets at the Songbird Habitat Parking Area

Thursday, June 26, 2008

Walking Trails: 10 am—1045 am
Explore this abandoned site that we have certified as a pollinator garden. Learn how you can help pollinators on this 1/4 mile stroll!
Meets at the Walking Trails Parking Lot, just inside the West Gate.

Friday, June 27, 2008

Pollinator Crafts: 1130 am—130 pm
Come at any time between the program hours to make your craft.
Confederate Hall Historical and Environmental Education Lobby

For individuals and family groups only.
Wear comfortable walking shoes and bring sun-screen and water.
Call 770.498.5658 for more information and directions.

